'Fear forcing families to leave homes'

Police chiefs told of scenes likened to the Wild West

HAVERHILL residents feel unsafe in their own homes due to drug-dealing and anti-social behaviour with one councillor likening scenes to the Wild West.

Suffolk's Police and Crime Commissioner Tim Passmore and Chief Constable Gareth Wilson were told by one resident: "It's like something off the telly. They are smashing each other's windows, they are fighting each other, they've got dogs fighting each other, they are out all night."

The two police chiefs and Haverhill inspector Danny Cooper attended a public meeting on Monday night at Samuel Ward Academy and were told residents' fears were forcing some to look for new homes.

A resident, identified only as Maggie, said four of her neighbours, who had lived on her street for years, were seeking home exchanges as a result of the problems.

She said she believed the problem stemmed from people with similar issues, such as drug and alcohol abuse, being put in the same properties.

Maggie said: "I've got people like me saying: 'We feel unsafe in our homes'. Because their windows have been smashed, they've got doors damaged."

She said she had lived in her road for 23 years and the problem had been getting steadily worse.

Her concerns were echoed by town councillor Barry Robbins, who represents the North Ward.

He said: "I am constantly talking to people, probably the older generation, who are frightened in their homes."

He said that even in his own street, a small cul-de-sac, there had recently been an "almighty fracas."

He continued: "I would liken it to the Wild West. I have lived here for seven years and it's just a disgrace."

JUSTICE

CLOSED: Bury St Edmunds Magistrates' Court

Calls for new justice system

HAVERHILL'S nearest magistrates' court closed last week - but some cases from the town will now be heard in Cambridge.

The last listings at the Bury St Edmunds Magistrates' Court, which was earmarked for closure in July, took place on October 5.

Some criminal cases from Haverhill will now be heard in Ipswich - a round trip of more than 80 miles.

It was initially announced that all work from Bury St Edmunds Magistrates' Court would be moved to Ipswich Magistrates' Court.

But the Ministry of Justice confirmed on Monday that civil and family cases from the Haverhill area will now be heard in Cambridge, meaning a far simpler journey for Newmarket residents.

MPs including West Suffolk's Matthew Hancock and Suffolk's Police and Crime Commissioner Tim Passmore say that an alternative system for access to justice in West Suffolk is needed.

Mr Passmore said about

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

the closure: "It's a regrettable decision and not good news for Suffolk as a whole."

He is set to meet with the courts minister and MPs Jo Churchill and Peter Aldous on October 20 to ask for a six-month stay of execution on the closure.

This would allow time for alternative arrangements - which could include video links or "pop-up courts" - to be found.

Mr Passmore said: "What we will be doing is pressing him for the opportunity to draw up plans for alternative provision for a new system of summary justice across the county."

"All we want to know is if we come up with plans and they are workable that they will be considered properly."

Mr Hancock added: "Haverhill has never had modern magistrates. With the closure of Bury Magistrates court, Haverhill's local justice will be done in Cambridge, with which we have many transport links. What we must do is make the best use of technology, via video links and other methods, to ensure a modern, fair and accessible system for the future administration of justice."

An HM Courts and Tribunals Service spokesperson said: "We have a world-leading legal system and are investing over £700 million to reform and digitise our courts to deliver swifter justice."

"Closing underused and dilapidated court buildings will allow us to reinvest in the justice system and make the best use of technology. This will improve access to justice and improve the experience for all court users, in particular vulnerable victims and witnesses."

They say closing courts will raise £40million.

The pedestrian, Peter Murray, 46, of Sorrel Walk, Haverhill, died at the scene.

Police would like to hear from anyone who may have seen Mr Murray walking along the road, or the vehicle, either prior to or at the

New radio signal is turned on LISTENERS in Suffolk will now be able to access local stations on their digital radios thanks to a new signal.

MP for West Suffolk Matthew Hancock switched on the digital radio signal on Monday.

It will allow 425,000 people to tune into stations such as BBC Radio Suffolk, Heart East Anglia, Suffolk First, Smooth, Chris Country and Fun Kids on their digital sets.

Mr Hancock said: "This is very exciting news for the people of Suffolk. Digital radio offers a huge choice of stations to appeal to a range of tastes and interests and to young and old alike."

The switch-on took place at Ixworth Primary School.

INQUEST

Accident split cyclist's helmet

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

A CYCLIST described as a "true gentleman" died after braking hard threw him over his handlebars, an inquest has heard.

Sean Hickey, 44, of Connaught Road in Haverhill, died at the scene of the accident on May 1 this year.

Mr Hickey had been cycling behind a Range Rover in Nethergate Street, Clare, at around 3.30pm, the inquest heard.

As space on the road narrowed due to a line of parked cars, the Range Rover slowed down and a blue Citroen Picasso travelling in the other direction came almost to a stop to let it pass.

Eye-witness statements describe how Mr Hickey's bicycle then swerved out from behind the Range Rover into the path of the blue Picasso.

They say he was thrown over his handlebars as a result of braking hard, and landed on his head on the Picasso, which witnesses agreed was either still or barely moving.

One witness, John Day, described how the impact almost broke Mr Hickey's helmet in two.

Deborah Butler, who was in the car behind the Picasso, described calling the emergency services. She said she stayed with Mr Hickey and asked him to squeeze her hand if he could hear her, which he did.

But she continued: "Unfortunately, as the ambulance arrived he took a turn for the worse."

He was declared dead less than an hour later.

A post-mortem examination revealed that he had died from multiple injuries sustained in the collision.

It also discovered evidence of the early stages of a heart attack, which police said could be one reason why his bike swerved.

The police report said that another reason for the swerve could be that he did not see the car in front of him slow down. This may have been due to the time trial bike he was on, which had to be ridden in a hunched-over position with poor visibility.

Mark Hickey wrote a statement about his brother and his interests, from cycling to looking after sick animals. He said: "Many people have told me that Sean was very popular, a true gentleman, and always helped people and animals in need."

The inquest took place on Monday in Bury St Edmunds.

400km in 10 months to support air ambulance

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

FOUR friends from Haverhill have run nearly 400km to raise money for the East Anglian Air Ambulance.

Clare and Daniel Everitt and Billie and Paul Farr are coming to the end of a "10 10k runs in 10 months" challenge.

The two couples began the challenge at the start of the year, and it will finish at the end of October.

They came up with the idea while trying to decide how to fundraise for the air ambulance last year – and realised they were all runners.

Clare said: "Some of them have been really hard. We did one at Ickworth Park near Bury St Edmunds – it was a very cold and frosty morning and we had had lots of rain."

"I've never seen so much mud. There was mud everywhere."

They chose the charity, Clare said, because "you never know when you might need them".

CLOSING IN: The four intrepid runners Paul Farr, Billie Farr, Daniel Everitt and Clare Everitt will have completed their 400k challenge for East Anglian Air Ambulance by the end of the month

They are aiming to raise £2,000 for the charity. So far they've managed £500, which is being match-funded by Paul's employers ARM, bringing the total up to £1,000.

They have just a few races left to run this October. Clare is taking on a run in Peterborough, Daniel is doing one in Thurlow and Billie and Paul are running together in Grantchester.

By the end of the month, they will have completed 40 runs, totalling 400km.

To donate and help them reach £2,000, go to justgiving.com/fundraising/ten10kten

Canine capers as dogs unite

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

FORTY dogs aged 12 weeks to 13 years bounded across a Haverhill park on Sunday to raise money for charity.

They were taking part in a new "Dogs Unite" charity event for Guide Dogs.

The event was organised by Haverhill resident Simon Edwards, who has a guide dog himself and has just set up a Haverhill branch of the charity.

Simon said: "It couldn't have gone any better. The weather was great.

"Everyone had glowing feedback."

He said that there were around 50 walkers in total, who could choose from three different routes around Haverhill's East Town Park.

He said that sponsorship money was still coming in, but the event had already raised £426 for Guide Dogs.

He organised a visit from a Guide Dog puppy, who came up from her training in Bishop's Stortford to "meet and greet" Haverhill walkers.

Simon said: "We had lots

of people saying: 'When's the next one?'. It's definitely going to be going on next year."

But that is not all the newly-formed Haverhill branch of Guide Dogs will be doing. Simon says he is planning fundraising events throughout the year, with the next ones being collections at Sainsbury's and Tesco at Christmas.

To find out more, go to Facebook and search "Haverhill Guide Dogs".

Dancers mark birthday

DANCERS took to the stage at the weekend to celebrate the 11th anniversary of a Haverhill dance school.

The Lisa Mason School of Dance (LMSD) "Let's Dance" show was performed at Haverhill Arts Centre.

The youngest dancer was just three years old, while some of the older member have been attending LMSD lessons since they were first launched.

Lisa Mason, who runs the school, said: "I'd like to thank all the dancers for performing this weekend - they are all stars - all the parents, helpers and my LMSD team. It's been a real team effort in putting on the show and their dedication shows in our show work."

INFRASTRUCTURE

Project to get road dualled

MOVES have started to prepare a business case to get the A1307 turned into a dual carriageway.

The project is being pushed forward by Suffolk Chamber of Commerce, and the new A1307 Strategy Board will co-ordinate the efforts to help get the improvements delivered.

The chamber believes that the road, which connects Haverhill and Cambridge, is "not fit for the current purposes either of local businesses or local residents"

A meeting on Friday was chaired by MP for West Suffolk Hancock, who is backing the campaign.

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

Board members agreed at the meeting to start building a business case for improving the A1307 and other A-roads in the Haverhill area. Partners were asked to contribute towards the costs of the business case.

Chairman of the Haverhill Chamber, Paul Donno, said: "This was a good meeting at which everyone agreed that we all needed to work together to deal with the A1307's poor safety record and the constant delays along it - which costs businesses money and is a disincentive to inward investment coming into Haverhill and the area around.

"We are now looking at pulling together the funding for a business case for improvements - a vital and welcome first step."

The A1307 project is one of two major infrastructure projects that the Chamber of Commerce is pushing to have delivered in the Haverhill area.

The other is securing a lorry park to alleviate the problem of lorries parking around the town and drivers not having facilities.

A meeting about the lorry park project was also held on Friday.

CRIME

'Drugs and HMOs are priorities'

From front page

Mr Wilson and Insp Cooper both urged residents to call 999 if they believed a crime was in progress.

They also emphasised that both drug dealing and tackling problems at multiple-occupancy houses were priorities for policing in Haverhill.

Mr Wilson said that tackling individual drug deals taking place in Haverhill was not enough to solve the problem.

He said: "We are working with the Eastern Region Special Operations unit to take out suppliers who are coming up from London."

He added that Haverhill's Safer Neighbourhood Team was doing follow-up work after warrants were carried out to try to prevent problems recurring.

Insp Cooper said he was working with other agencies through community partnership ONE Haverhill to tackle the problem of houses of multiple occupancy where anti-social behaviour occurs.

He added that on Maggie's road there had been a specific incident last month, which police had dealt with and made a number of arrests.

He continued: "Some of it runs so deep - the way that people who live in those houses talk to each other. They live very differently to the norm. I believe you are safe to go out at night, but if you feel unsafe, that's a problem. It's a very difficult problem to solve."

Session to promote wellbeing

RESIDENTS are being invited to a health and wellbeing event in Haverhill.

The session, organised by the West Suffolk Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) and the Haverhill Family Practice Patient Participation Group (PPG), will help residents find out about the health services.

Haverhill Family Practice PPG chairwoman Sue Spittlehouse said: "We've had an encouraging response from various areas of the local health and social care sector and we're building a strong list of attendees. There'll be something for everyone's interest, so we are urging the public to drop by during the day and have a browse."

"It will be an ideal opportunity for many organisations to showcase the services on offer to the residents of Haverhill and we hope the local community find it beneficial."

It will run from 11am to 4pm on Friday, October 28, at the arts centre.

MEMORIAL

Bench and mural pay tribute to councillor

HANNAH MIRSKY

@HannahMirskyCN

A MURAL and bench in memory of a respected councillor have been unveiled in a Haverhill churchyard.

County councillor Tim Marks died in January.

His widow, Margaret, told the News that more than 100 people turned out to the unveiling of his memorial on Friday.

She said: "I couldn't believe, when I turned up, how many people were there, from all walks of life."

The mural, designed by Cllr Marks' son Jason, and a bench in his memory, have both been placed in the churchyard of St Mary's Church.

Mrs Marks said the tribute could not be more fitting, as her husband had been involved with the Haverhill in Bloom project to renovate the churchyard. He had been there at the launch almost exactly a year earlier on October 6, 2015.

She said: "He would have been very proud that something useful has been done. There's that beautiful window, there's a bench. He would have thought it was money well spent."

The unveiling ceremony began with a speech from West

Suffolk MP Matthew Hancock, who described Cllr Marks as "a beacon of calm strength in stormy times".

The bench and the window mural were both blessed by clergy from St Mary's.

Poems were read out by Haverhill town councillor Betty McLatchy and Mayor of St Edmundsbury Julia Wakelam. Cllr Wakelam had been talking to Cllr Marks when he collapsed on a planning committee site visit in January.

Mrs Marks said of the event: "It was brilliant, absolutely brilliant."

EDUCATION

Interns get a taste of teaching

GRADUATE intern teachers have started at two of Haverhill's schools.

The interns began their paid work experience at Burton End Primary Academy and Castle Manor Academy at the start of this school year.

They have been offered the opportunity as part of the Teach Suffolk programme, which has been running for two years.

County councillor Gordon Jones said: "The internship is a great way to introduce graduates to teaching and help them decide whether it's the career for them. Around 60 per cent of last year's interns went on to teacher training and we now employ a number of teachers in Suffolk who have come through this route."

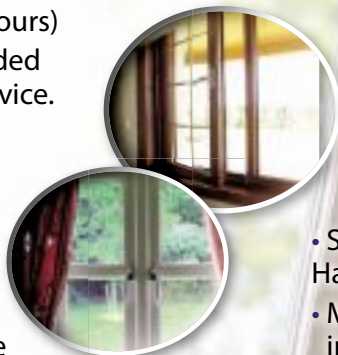

"The benefit for participants is that they are well prepared for teacher training and will have good experience and knowledge to get their career started."

CRIME

Vans are raided for £5k of tools

THIEVES have taken almost £5,000 worth of tools from locked vans in Haverhill in a single night.

In incidents being linked by police, four vans were raided around the town overnight between October 5 and 6.

Although all four vans were locked, none showed signs of forced entry – suggesting the thieves had found a way to get in without damaging the vehicle.

In Crowland Road, between 5.30pm and 12.20am, the criminals took tools worth £690 from a white van. These include a Paslode nail gun, a Bosch hammer, a Bosch drill and a Makita saw.

In Greenwood Close between 3pm and 7.30am, a white van parked in a car park had a turquoise and red Makita drill of unknown value stolen.

In Templars Court between 9pm and 8.10am, tools worth a total of £2,370 were taken from a Ford van.

These were a Stihl disc cut-

HANNAH MIRSKEY

@HannahMirskyCN

ter, a Makita breaker, a Makita drill, a Paslode nail gun, a Stihl saw, a Stihl jigsaw and a Bosch breaker.

The fourth theft took place in Squires Court, where a white van had £1,550 worth of tools taken between 10pm and 7am.

These included drills made by Dewalt, Makita and Hitachi, as well as a Makita power saw and batteries.

The thefts come after previous similar incidents, including ones when £1,350 worth of tools were stolen from vans in Cox's Close and Hundon Place in early September.

In Squires Court in August, a van had £2,120 worth of tools stolen.

In light of these incidents, police are urging residents not to leave any tools overnight in their vans.

They are also advising people not to leave tools in their garages as these are also vulnerable to theft.

To make vans secure, PCSO Lorna Chapman, of Haverhill Police, advised putting a bolt over sliding doors or open hatch doors on a van.

She also suggested putting a battery-powered garage alarm inside the back of the van, as a vehicle alarm would only be triggered by someone breaking into the cabin.

The garage alarm would be triggered by any movement in the back of the van.

If you are keeping tools in a garage, she advised backing a vehicle up against the garage door and putting the steering wheel on hard lock.

If you have any information on any of these incidents, call Haverhill Police on 101. You can also call Crimestoppers, anonymously if required, on 0800 555 111.

FUNDRAISING: Bereaved Peter Bowers, centre, with George Chilvers, of St Nicholas Hospice Care, and event organiser Marion Farrant

Widower's charity day raises £1,250

A BEREAVED husband's charity golf day for the hospice that helped his wife has raised more than £1,250.

Peter Bowers organised the day, at Haverhill Golf Club, in memory of his wife Jan, who was looked after by St Nicholas Hospice Care in her final days.

It raised £1,251.51 when 82 players took part on Saturday, September 17. This was the second time the event had taken place.

Mr Bowers said: "After Jan's death I wanted to do something for the hospice. I went on holiday with friends from the club and

I mentioned the idea of a charity day, they thought it was a great idea and when we came back we just did it."

As well as the golf, there was a karaoke event held in the evening, and a raffle with a television donated by Chapman and Sons as the top prize

Abuse charges in a 37% drop

DOMESTIC violence prosecutions in Suffolk have dropped by 37 per cent in the first half of 2016 compared to the same period last year.

The figures, released after a Freedom of Information request from lawyers Simpson Millar, reveal that between December 29, 2015, and June 30, 2016, Suffolk police charged 403 people with domestic violence offences.

This compares with 642 people charged over the same period the previous year.

Simpson Millar's head of family services, Emma Pearmaine, who is chairwoman of domestic violence charity Corporate Alliance, said she had fears the drop could be related to under-reporting.

She said: "For several years we have seen a steady rise in domestic violence prosecutions, which was largely attributed to an increase in public awareness and a change in the attitude within police forces to pro-actively tackle these cases. It is rather idealistic or hopeful to assume that we are witnessing a society-wide fall in instances of domestic violence, regardless of how much I wish that was true."

HANNAH MIRSKY

But Suffolk police's Detective Superintendent Dave Cutler pointed to Crown Prosecution Service figures which show that the number of domestic violence prosecutions in Suffolk between April, 2015, and March, 2016, was 850. This compares with 854 for the same period 2014/15.

He said 83.8 per cent of domestic violence cases in Suffolk were prosecuted, compared to a national average of 74.6 per cent. He said the force worked closely with partner agencies to provide support whether or not the victim pursued a court case.

He added: "Our response to domestic abuse incidents was recognised by Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary (HMIC) and we continue to work to encourage victims to come forward to speak to us.

"The constabulary has a dedicated team of domestic abuse specialists based at locations across the county, who are trained in this sensitive area of crime. In addition to this, more than 800 officers across Suffolk recently had specialist training to deal with incidents, and tackling domestic abuse remains a priority for the constabulary."

Suffolk's Police and Crime Commissioner Tim Passmore said: "I'm not willing to put too much into a few months of figures, but I understand people's concerns. Dealing with domestic abuse is a huge concern for me."

He used his budget to set up a county-wide independent domestic violence advisor service in 2014.

Pre-school steps up to a state-of-the-art building

HANNAH MIRSKY
@HannahMirskyCN

A PRE-SCHOOL in Haverhill has opened its own building after operating in the town for more than 25 years.

Stepping Stones Pre-School previously ran from a classroom in the town's Coupals Primary Academy.

But on Friday the pre-school unveiled its own state-of-the-art building.

The building will allow the pre-school to expand to 30 children. It paves the way for a £1.6million re-development of Coupals Primary Academy, which will double the school's size.

The new building also houses an office, staff room and kitchen. It was supported by the locality budgets of St Edmundsbury Borough Councillors Margaret Marks and Patrick Chung.

MP for West Suffolk Matthew Hancock opened the new facility on Friday.

He said: "I have known Stepping Stones for many years and I am delighted they have expanded into

What do you think? Have your say on our website at cambridge-news.co.uk/haverhill this purpose-built building which means they can offer their excellent pre-school service to even more Haverhill families."

Elaine McManus, owner of Stepping Stones, said: "We had a small classroom in Coupals Primary Academy before, so this new building has already had the wow factor among children, parents and staff.

"We are delighted to be in and delighted to be able to offer an additional 10 spaces for pre-school children in Haverhill."

As well as expanding the size of the pre-school, the new building will also play host to before and after school clubs for children at Coupals.

Head of Coupals David Maguire said: "We are delighted Elaine and the Stepping Stones team are so pleased with their new facilities.

"We have always worked very closely together and we are delighted they are able to offer an even greater provision on the first rung of the educational ladder."

CHARITY

Foodbank reports fall in demand

A HAVERHILL foodbank has seen a six per cent reduction in the number of people needing to use its services.

REACH Community Projects says this fall – which is not in line with national foodbank trends – is due to the work it does tackling the root causes of clients' problems.

The charity has distributed 13.6 tonnes of food over the last year, its annual review has revealed, feeding 997 people.

It says that of the 375 referrals to the foodbank, 64 per cent only needed one box.

The annual review also details that the charity's fundraising is going strong.

Income from fundraising has risen from £7,000 to £10,000 over the last year, while REACH has also seen a rise in regular giving from £29,000 to £31,000.

This will help it achieve its short-term goals of setting up satellite centres in the town and the surrounding villages, in partnership with the local community.

The charity will use a new cloud-based computing system to make this plan possible.

REHEARSALS: Centre Stage Theatre Company's youth production of Fame, The Musical which is being put on at Haverhill Arts Centre from October 18

Picture: Andy Mayes

■ Friday, October 14 – Friday, October 21
■ From October 18, the kids from the New York High School of Performing Arts high-kick themselves, and hopefully the audience, into a frenzy with Centre Stage's production of Fame, the Musical. The action centres on a new group of kids but the drama and emotion from the film and the TV series remain. Expect lots of tights, sweatbands and high octane energy from the Haverhill group's latest production. It promises to be a back-to-the-80s blast!
■ Finding Dory (U) is a 'Hello, again' to Dory from Finding Nemo. Voiced (in between chat-shows) by Ellen Degeneres the amnesiac Blue Tang suddenly remembers some childhood memories and this prompts her to set out to find her family. The ocean is quite a big space to find mummy and daddy Blue Tang. Luckily, she narrows the search down to California's Monterey Marine Life Institute and has the help of her old friends Nemo and Merlin. She also makes new ones like Hank the octopus and whale shark Destiny, so you won't be surprised to learn there's a happy ending in store. Watch the family blockbuster on Monday, October 24, at 10.30am.
■ The arts centre has a couple of shows in the pipeline that have all-but sold out, the comedian Seann

Walsh (October 23) and The Life & Music of Jim Reeves (October 24). Also coming up are The Musicians of Bremen specially programmed for the half term holidays. In this new take on an old tale, Sea Legs Puppet Theatre tells the story of what happens to old toys when no-one loves them anymore. It is all quite jolly in the end as the worn-out donkey, pull along dog, one-eyed cat and mechanical cockerel team together to become the best of friends. Catch it on Thursday, October 27, at 11.30am. Set against the back-drop of postwar Britain, Kenneth Branagh plays Archie Rice in his own production of The Entertainer on Thursday, October 27. The performance will be broadcast live at 7.15pm. Further into the future the arts centre has Peter Asher and Albert Lee (Wednesday, November 2), Lucy Porter (Friday, November 4) and Brendan Shine (Wednesday, November 16).
■ Tuesday, October 18, 7.30pm Fame, The Musical. £9/£10
■ Wednesday, October 19, 7.30pm Fame, The Musical. £10/ £11
■ Thursday, October 20, 7.30pm Fame, The Musical. £11/£12
■ Friday, October 21, 7.30pm Fame, The Musical. £13
■ Saturday, October 22, 2.30pm Fame, The Musical. £9/£10
■ Saturday, October 22, 7.30pm Fame, The Musical. £13

SLEEK: Hyundai's RN30

Hot hatch breaks cover at motor show

HYUNDAI is planning a hot hatch with performance to rival the likes of the Audi RS series and even BMW's mighty M machines.

Dressed to thrill, the Hyundai RN30 was revealed at the Paris Motor Show in concept form by Albert Biermann – the Korean company's newly-appointed head of high performance cars.

Based on the new generation Hyundai i30, the RN30 was born as a racing machine, and is the first example Hyundai's new range of N sports models announced last year.

Powered by a 2.0-litre turbo boosted to 380 horsepower the RN30 is in the same league as the likes of Ford's Focus RS and the BMW M2.

When developing the RN30, the designers and engineers took a new approach to reducing weight and lowering the center of gravity. Instead of using carbon fibre reinforced polymer (CFRP), Hyundai used all-new plastic materials, developed in collaboration with leading global chemical company BASF.

Motability event Sunday

ANYONE with a disability but who needs to get around should get along to the Milton Park and Ride site on Sunday, October 16, for the first ever Motability Show.

The Motability Scheme provides an affordable, worry-free way for people with disabilities to lease a car, scooter or powered wheelchair in exchange for their mobility allowance.

The Scheme is operated by Motability Operations, under contract to Motability, a registered Charity.

Cambridge News & Media will be hosting the event which takes place between 10am and 4pm. Parking and admission is £1, but the first hour is free.

Since it was set up on the initiative of the government in 1978, Motability, the UK's leading car scheme for disabled people, has provided millions of people with affordable, convenient, trouble-free motoring through the provision of a new car.

Powered wheelchairs and scooters can also be financed through the scheme, and Motability's car and wheelchair schemes currently provide freedom and independence to more than 620,000 disabled people and their families, across the UK.

The scheme is directed and overseen by Motability, a national charity which also raises funds and provides financial help to customers who would otherwise be unable to join the Scheme.

SUNDAY MOTABILITY: Stars of the Scheme include the Hyundai Tucson, left, and the Skoda Yeti

HOW THE MOTABILITY SCHEME WORKS

As a unique and successful collaboration of the public and private sectors, the Motability scheme enables disabled people to use their government-funded mobility allowances to lease a new car, powered wheelchair or scooter.

By far the most popular option, chosen by more than 95 per cent of customers is the contract hire of a new car, which offers worry free motoring at affordable prices. Customers can choose a brand new car from a selection of more than 2,000 models, from the major manufacturers, on a three or five-year lease. Insurance, road tax, breakdown cover, servicing, tyre and windscreen replacement are all included in a single monthly payment. A similar all-inclusive hire plan is available for powered wheelchairs and scooters.

Many cars are available simply by customers transferring their allowance to Motability for the period of the agreement. However, on larger or more expensive models, an additional payment (known as an Advance Payment) may be required.

WHO CAN APPLY?

The scheme is available to anyone who is receiving one of the following benefits, and has at least 12 months award length remaining when they apply:

- Higher Rate Mobility Component of the Disability Living Allowance
- Enhanced Rate Mobility Component of Personal Independence Payment
- War Pensioners' Mobility Supplement
- Armed Forces Independence Payment

A parent or carer can apply on behalf of a child aged three or older and those who cannot drive can apply for a car as a passenger.

Once their application has been accepted, the customer pays all, or part of their allowance to Motability for the duration of the contract hire agreement.

GETTING ON THE ROAD

Cars are supplied through a network of some 4,500 Motability Dealer Partners across the UK. There is also a national network of accredited retailers of powered wheelchairs and scooters.

ADAPTATIONS TO CARS

For most Motability customers, a standard production car is suitable for their needs, but adaptations are needed for around 10 per cent of customers, to enable them to drive safely, or travel in comfort as a passenger. As part of the Contract Hire package, a range of popular adaptations are available at no additional cost, such as push-pull hand controls and left-foot accelerators.

PROVIDING ADDITIONAL FINANCIAL HELP

Motability may also be able to assist those customers who need additional financial help to obtain the mobility solution they need. As well as administering government-funded grants, Motability raises funds and provides financial assistance to customers that require complex adaptations.

For more information and to check how to qualify for help with a vehicle go online at motability.co.uk.

Top tips to keep your pet happy – and alive! – while on the road

MANY of us take to the road with our pets and if we are lucky enough might even have a place for them at our desks. But much as we love them, now and again our furry friends can pose a few challenges when we're driving.

Here are some tips for those driving with pets from IAM RoadSmart's head of driving and riding standards Richard Gladman.

- First of all try not to feed your pet right before you leave or when you're on the road, but do keep a supply of their favourite biscuits or treats so you can stay in control.
- Keep your pets out of the front seat and off your lap. You never know when your pet might react to something they think is interesting outside the car. Ideally dogs should be behind a guard or correctly strapped in in the back seat. Cats or smaller creatures should be in an appropriately secured carrier.

- Leaving your pet alone in the car, no matter what the temperature might feel like outside, is a big no.

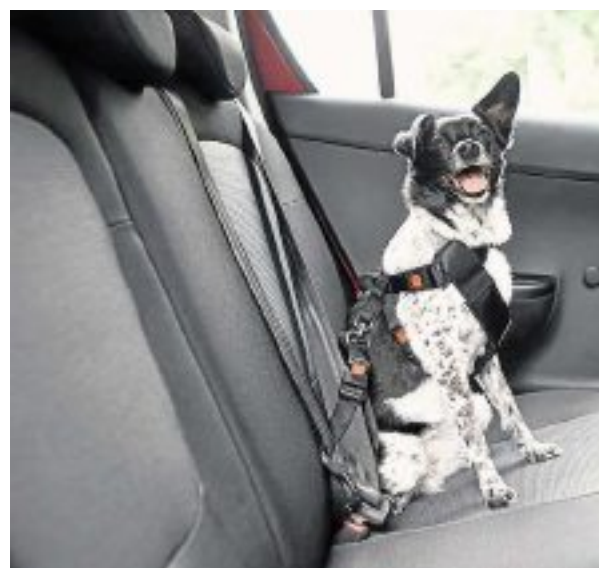

■ Try to take along familiar toys and bedding to provide a relaxed setting.

■ Don't change up the menu! A sudden switch in your pet's food before the journey can upset them (and their stomach!).

■ Take water and a bowl with you to keep your favourite companion well hydrated and take frequent stops for exercise and calls of nature. Keep a supply of poo bags in the car just in case.

- Don't let your pet stick its head out of the window. Dog's eyes were never designed to travel at 60mph!

Follow these guidelines and all onboard should be fine.

SECURE: Safety on board means keeping your pet safe as well

Winner Kevin miles ahead

A LOCAL boy has done good, in the form of Marshall Group's Kevin Rule who has won technician of the year in the annual Hyundai awards.

Kevin has been working at Marshall in Cambridge for 18 years and has been with the Hyundai franchise since it opened. After completing his apprenticeship he then embarked on the arduous Hyundai training programme which takes many years to complete.

This spring Kevin completed this training and is currently master technician at Newmarket Road-based Marshall Hyundai Cambridge.

This in itself is a huge achievement but not content with this success, Kevin then entered the 2016 Hyundai Technician of the Year which he won with a 20 per cent lead on his nearest competitor.

Now Hyundai UK has entered Kevin for the European finals, where they believe he stands a great chance of winning.

Kevin said: "I'm just thrilled. It's taken a massive effort, dedication and concentration to win even the UK title but I never dreamed I was good enough for the European Finals, so I'm now excited to be going to Frankfurt in Germany."

"The trip itself will be amazing as we're visiting the World Rally Championships as VIP guests!"

Asked what he feels are his chances, Kevin is naturally coy: "I'm up against the best in Europe and can only do my best".

GM Zak Long said: "Last year my parts manager, Dale Brown, won Parts Manager of the Year and Michelle Amabile, my service manager, was runner-up Service Manager of the Year. So I'm only too delighted that Kevin now has the opportunity to test himself."

"The whole team is behind him and we'd love to be with him in Germany for the finals. Whatever he achieves, the true beneficiaries will be our Hyundai customers."

THRILLED: Marshall Group's Kevin Rule picks up his technician of the year award at the annual Hyundai event

How to improve a car's performance by 70%

The effectiveness consultancy Benchmarking recently analysed what happens when companies include press advertising in their media mix.

They looked at more than 500 econometric models, covering a five-year period and, as the table here shows, they found that adding newspapers dramatically increases the effectiveness of other media.

In the automotive sector they reviewed companies that ranged from the big spending German giants of the industry to medium sized independent carmakers.

And they discovered that by adding newspaper advertising to their campaigns, they cranked up their effectiveness by over 70%.

Increased effectiveness using newspapers
